

Grammar

● Rewrite the sentences after changing the underline words to plurals.

i) The sparrow was singing on the tree.

The sparrows were singing on the tree.

ii) I put the knife on the table.

I put the knives on the table

iii) It was cold and the girl was wearing a scarf.

It was cold and the girls were wearing scarves.

iv) In the winter the leaf fall off the tree.

In the winter the leaves fall off the tree.

v) There is a box of old toy in the loft.

There are boxes of old toys in the loft.

● Rewrite the following sentences after changing the underline masculine and feminine.

i) This lion is looking old.

This lioness is looking old.

ii) Bring your son with you.

Bring your daughter with you.

iii) The horse is hungry.

The mare is hungry.

iv) My sister is angry with me.

My brother is angry with me.

v) May I come in, Madam?

May I come in sir?

● Use prefix or suffix to make a new word out of the word brackets.

i) Don't stand near the water. It's too dangerous (danger)

ii) Saira started crying because she was so unhappy (happy)

iii) Thank you for your advice. You have been very helpful (help)

iv) Our science teacher is very young. (teach)

v) Marry was wearing an unusual hat. (usual)

vi) That was a great book. It was really. (enjoy) enjoyable.

prefixes	suffixes
dis, un, im, re	ing, ed, able, ly, ous, er, ful