

Grammar

◆ Complete these sentences with adjectives.

1. Watchman's house is neat and clean.
2. The weather is much humid today than it was yesterday.
3. That was the interesting poem I have read.
4. Ploughing with oxen is harder than with tractor.
5. Kalash is one of the oldest communities.

◆ Fill in the gaps with a, an or the.

1. Can you open the door?
2. Brush your teeth twice a day.
3. I bought a new house and the house is big.
4. You need an egg to make this cake.
5. I want to buy a packet of chips.

◆ Complete each sentence with the opposite of the underline word.

1. Jamil is always late for school but Ali is usually early.
2. The lime juice was not sweet enough. It tasted sour.
3. Ayesha is absent from school today but her brother is present.
4. Saba was awake but her brother was _____.
5. Some students thought the book was _____ but I found it interesting.

◆ Fill in the correct words with prefix and suffix

(ment, il, dis, ness, un, ty)

1. Your illness (ill) is a direct result of smoking.
2. This man is doing something illegal (legal). Should we call the police?
3. Do you get free dental treatment (treat) in your country? or do you have to pay for it.
4. Try to disconnect (connect) these wires.
5. There was a lot of activity (active) outside my bedroom window.
6. I was unhappy (happy) because I came late.