

Listening/Speaking

If 'c' and 'g' come before an i, y or e they are pronounced as soft.

If they come after any other letter they are pronounced hard.

- Listen the given words and tell the soft and hard sound of letter 'c' and 'g'.

Say the word loudly and differentiate between soft and hard sound

crawl	icy
cell	mice
castle	cereal

golf	gift
gentle	bridge
flag	giant

- Listen the riddles. Use the word bank to answer the riddles. When you are done circle the consonants cluster in initial and final positions.

glad, scientist, flower, clean, mask

I smell good and grow in the garden. Who am I? flower

I am a synonyms

of happy! Who am I? glad

I spend time in designing and carrying out scientific experiments. Who am I? scientist

You use me to cover your face. I keep you away from dust and allergies. Who am I? mask

I am the opposite of dirty.

Who am I? Clean

Practical work

Ask your father about his profession?

Ask why he choose this profession?

Share what do you want to be?

Ask which is the best profession for you according to your father and why?