

Grammar

◆ Change the underline nouns in each sentence into their plural forms.

1. The man tried to catch the leaf.

The men tried to catch the leaves.

2. The mouse ate the bread and cheese.

The mice ate the bread and cheeses.

3. The child put the loaf of the bread on the shelf.

The children put the loaf of the bread on the shelves.

4. The hunter saw the deer hiding behind the bush.

The hunters saw the deers hiding behind the bushes.

5. The woman cut the fruit with a knife.

The women cut the fruits with knives.

● Change these adjectives to the adverb and complete each sentence.

thirsty, kind, regular, careful, lucky

1. She wrote the message down carefully.

2. Luckily no one was injured in the accident.

3. The footballers drank the water thirstly.

4. Her mother watched her kindly.

5. They practiced cricket regularly.

● Rewrite the sentences using another word which is similar in meaning (synonyms) of the underline word.

1. He ﷺ did not want to take revenge, instead pardoned the people who hurt Him.

He did not want to take retribute instead forgive the

2. He ﷺ went in an orchard for shelter.

He went in a garden for safety.

3. Makkah had proved unsuitable to Islam.

Makkah had proved inappropriate to Islam.