

Grammar

Change these sentences into the Future Tense.

Present	Future
1. She drinks milk.	1. She will drink milk.
2. You study hard.	2. You will study hard.
3. He plays.	3. He will play.
4. I am waiting for my turn.	4. I shall wait for my turn.
5. I read the fiction story books.	5. I shall read the fiction story book.

Read the sentences. Underline the subject, circle the verb and put the object in bracket.

1. He opened the (door)
2. The squirrel climbs the (tree)
3. You watched the (match)
4. My pen is lost in the (school)
5. I am afraid of (thunder)

A simple sentence has subject, verb and object. A subject is a noun, verb is action, and object is noun that effect by the action.

Complete the sentences using the simple past tense.

e.g: My mother cooked (cook) food.

1. Zahid did (do) his homework.
2. The children made (make) a lot of noise.
3. You talked (talk) to your friends.
4. His father sat (sit) on the sofa.
5. She read (read) a book.