

Grammar

Q1.

Match the following definitions with correct type of nouns.

Column A

- Refer to a group of things as one whole.
- Something that we can felt or detected with our five senses.
- General names of peoples, place, things or ideas.
- Something that we cannot perceive with our five senses.
- Specific names of persons, places, thing or ideas.

Column B

- Common nouns
- Abstract noun
- Collective noun
- Proper noun
- Concrete noun

Q2.

Write 5 examples of given types of noun.

- | | | | | |
|--------------------|---------------------|----------------|-----------------|----------------|
| 1. Common noun | boy | School | pencil | Bag |
| 2. Proper noun | Quaid-e-Azam | China | december | Fessasi |
| 3. Collective noun | army | crew | bunch | herd |
| 4. Concrete noun | grapes | music | teacher | paper |
| 5. Abstract Noun | hope | ability | life | skill |

Q3.

Read the sentence and write which type of noun is used in a sentence.

i) We have a lot of hope for the future.

abstract noun

ii) A gang of robbers looted the bank.

collective noun

iii) Shahid Afridi is known for his sixers in cricket history.

proper noun

iv) The baby girl is playing on the couch.

concrete noun

v) He is going to school.

common noun