

Grammar

Q1.

Read the following sentences and underline adjective in each sentence. Theⁿ write if it is attributive and predicative adjective.

e.g: The soup tastes salty predicative

i) The book was heavy

predicative

ii) The children were asleep upstairs.

predicative

iii) The white snow covered the grass.

attributive

iv) The room felt cold without any heating.

Predicative

v) They belong to different civilization.

attributive

Q2.

Make adjectives from the nouns and verbs given below.

e.g: example comfort - comfortable

i) depend - dependable

vi) help - helpful

ii) fool - foolish

vii) dust - dusty

iii) danger - dangerous

viii) attract - attractive

iv) friend - friendly

ix) child - childish

v) joy - joyable

x) sense - sensible

Some adjectives are used before nouns they called attributive adjectives. Other are used after the noun and verb they called predicative.

Q3.

Use an apostrophe and 's' to form the plurals of the letters, numerals signs and words.

We can often convert nouns and verbs to adjectives by using the following endings or suffixes, e.g - able when added to understand make the adjective understandable.

i) Please dot your i's and cross your t's.

ii) How many d's are there in the word dandruff?

iii) The number 5's and 10's place values are important in math.

iv) The 1990s fashion trend is making a come back.

v) The word childrens is often misspelled.