

Grammar

Q1. Read the given words and write them in respective column.

many , square , black , excellent , round few , tall , small , beautiful , blue green , flat , one , kind , tiny

Quality	Quantity	Size	Shape	Colour
excellent	many	tall	square	black
beautiful	few	small	round	blue
kind	one	tiny	flat	green

Q2. Read the sentences. Circle the antecedents and underline the personal pronoun.

- Sara observed the changes in her body after surgery.
- Ahmed said that his lost child had been found by the police.
- Zubair went to see his favourite cricket match.
- The president sat in his chair.
- I love my fluffy teddy bear.

Q3. State whether the sentences are simple or compound?

- I really like chocolate cake, but I am too full for dessert.
- I love my new bicycle.
- This house is too expensive, and that house is too small.
- The train is on time.
- Usman went to park and his father went to the mosque.

compound
simple
compound
simple
compound

Notebook Task:

Q4. Change the sentences into their negative and interrogative forms of past continuous tense.

- He was playing luddo last night.
- She was washing her clothes yesterday.
- They were always quarrelling.
- My hair was going grey.
- The town was changing quickly.

Notebook Task:

Change the sentences into their negative and interrogative forms of past continuous tense.

- i) He was not playing ludo last night.
Was he playing ludo last night?
- ii) She was not washing her clothes yesterday.
Was she washing her clothes yesterday?
- iii) They were not always quarrelling.
Were they always quarrelling?
- iv) My hair was not going grey.
Was my hair going grey?
- v) The town was not changing quickly.
Was the town changing quickly?