◆ Read the poem:

Honeybee

Honeybees are busy as can be,
Buzzing round from tree to tree.
Gathering nectar as they roam,
Making honey sweet as home.

Their wings a blur as they take flight,
Dancing in the sun so bright.
Pollen dusted on their legs,
A vital task, the colony begs.

In flowers, they find their treasure,
Working with tireless measure.
A sweet reward for all to see,
Thanks to the honeybee.
